Community Service Plan
Chapter Year 2016 – 2017

Robin Burkhart, President

Amanda Sifford,
Community Service Director

Community Service Plan

Objectives: Promote and conduct community service activities that benefit the community and reflect the values and mission of AGA. Provide an opportunity for members to network in a relaxed atmosphere. Acknowledge contributions made by members and nonmembers that enhance Chapter activities and the government community.

Strategy 1: Develop and implement an annual plan of volunteer service projects, host various types of networking activities, and recognize contributions to Chapter activities and to the government accountability community.

- ④ Utilize the Community Service, Networking and Education committees to foster ideas and activities to benefit the local community and its members.

Strategy 2: Encourage Chapter members to volunteer their time and effort to community service projects.

- ④ Actively promote local community service projects and the benefits of volunteering.
- ④ Acknowledge members' contributions toward community service activities.

Strategy 3: Increase awareness of members' community service activities.

- ④ Promote all community service activities through the Chapter newsletters and the website.

Strategy 4: Host affordable networking opportunities.

- ④ Work with the rest of the Chapter Executive Committee to incorporate networking opportunities with or without Educational events.
- ④ Actively promote all networking events in Chapter newsletters and the website.
